

Mike Geske
NCGA Corn Board Member

Mike Geske serves as a member of the Corn Board of the National Corn Growers Association (NCGA), a producer-directed trade association headquartered in St. Louis, with a second office in Washington, D.C.

Mike and his son farm 2,100 acres of corn, cotton, rice, soybeans, and occasionally wheat and grain sorghum in Matthews, MO. He serves as the Corn Board's Organizational Liaison to the National Cattleman's Beef Association. He has served as chairman of the NCGA Public Policy Action Team and vice chairman of the NCGA Biotechnology Working Group.

Mike is a past president of the Missouri Corn Growers Association. In addition, he is a member of the board of directors of the Environmental Resources Coalition and has served as the vice chairman of the Missouri Farm Bureau's State Farm PAC and chairman of the Missouri Farm Bureau Cotton Committee.

Founded in 1957, the National Corn Growers Association represents approximately 36,000 dues-paying corn growers and the interests of more than 300,000 farmers who contribute through corn checkoff programs in their states. NCGA and its 48 affiliated state associations and checkoff organizations work together to help protect and advance corn growers' interests.
